Pre-service Meditation

Psalm 57; pg. 135

Morning Prayer for a Communicant: Behold, I come, my Savior, upon Your most affectionate invitation. Let me find grace in Your eyes, O Lover of life. For who am I, that You call me so kindly? Though I were holier than the angels, I would not for that reason be worthy of this meal. For how could I, being of unclean lips, yes, vile and base, be counted worthy, unless You make me worthy? Therefore, answer before I call, and prepare me by Your grace. You have said, "the one who comes to Me will I by no means cast out." So take my soul into Your keeping, according to Your great compassion. Remember, O Lord Jesus, that I have in my nature much that is evil and nothing that is good. Help me for Your mercy's sake. See how poor and wretched I am? O Savior of the world, remember Your faithfulness, and satisfy my heart with grace. How gladly I would appear before You in perfect faith and with due reverence and fervent devotion. But how am I to do this, unless it is by and through You, the author and finisher of my faith? Therefore, grant what is well pleasing to You. Graciously remove what displeases You. Cover it, I humbly pray, with the cloak of Your righteousness. Blessed is the soul that is acceptable to You! Open my eyes, that I may see the wonders of Your sacrament. Awaken my heart. Remove from me all foreign thoughts. Increase my hope. Kindle my affections. Render my devotion fervent. Cleanse me of all unrighteousness and sanctify me completely, that I may approach Your Table in cheerful confidence, and with a pure mouth, holy heart, and heartfelt desire, partake to the blessing, life and salvation of my soul. Amen.

Scripture Readings

“These are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.” - John 20:31

Colossians 2:6-15 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: 7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. 8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. 9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. 10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power: 11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: 12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. 13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; 14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; 15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

Luke 13:1-9 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. 2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? 3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. 4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. 6 He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. 7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? 8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: 9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

“I Believe ...”

Luther’s Explanation to the First Article

I believe that God has made me with all creatures, giving me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my members, my reason and all my faculties;

And that He still preserves me; therefore richly and daily providing clothing and shoes, meat and drink, house and home, wife and children, land, cattle, and all my goods, and all that I need to keep my body and life; defending me against all danger, and guarding and protecting me from all evil;

And all this purely out of fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me;

For all of which it is my duty to thank and praise, and to serve and obey Him.

This is most certainly true.

Hymn: 123

“Our God, Our Help in Ages Past”

SERMON - LUKE 24:29

But they constrained Him, saying, “Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent.” And He went in to stay with them.

Our New Year’s Prayer: “Abide with Us!”

OFFERTORY:

P: Now these are the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. (Deut 6:1,7)

♪ Pour down Thy grace in cheering streams

And warm my heart with mercy’s beams

From heav’n, Thy throne of beauty;

Thy Spirit ever lead and guide

That in my calling I abide And find my joy in duty.

Send light And might

That each measure, Plan and pleasure,

Heav’n-ward tending,

E’er in Thee may find its ending. Amen
